Buy a bag and support homeless people in Hamburg!

This message is meant to give hope

The Student Company: "Plastik war gestern" based at Stadtteilschule Stellingen is printing black, fair-trade, fabric bags with the slogan: "One Morning, Corona will be yesterday". This message is designed to inspire hope/optimism. We are screen-printing them by hand in a local Hamburg shop.

There are two different motifs: Hammaburg (blue) and Hafen (orange). Both motifs are also available in white. From each sale, 2 € per bag will be donated to "Hinz und Kunzt", the local newspaper sold by homeless people. We are looking for further sales outlets. Order your bag through our online store!
